LOCAL ANIMAL SHELTER WAIVES ADOPTION FEES FOR RABBITS ON NATIONAL BUNNY DAY

TACOMA, WA – To boost adoptions and celebrate National Bunny Day, adoption fees for all rabbits will be waived on Sept. 23 at the Humane Society for Tacoma & Pierce County.

Joey, a 10-month-old rabbit available for adoption.

The shelter currently has several adoptable rabbits with more expected to become available in time for the one-day event. The remaining eight rabbits from the rabbit confiscation that were brought to the shelter in Feb. are also available for adoption.

Adoptable rabbits and critters can be viewed on the shelter's website at: www.thehumanesociety.org/adoptable-pet-category/critters.

The rabbits vary in age, size, and personalities. All adoptable rabbits have received a wellness exam by shelter staff and come with post adoption pet care counseling.

Anyone interested in adopting a rabbit can find an adoption application on the shelter's website at: www.thehumanesociety.org/adopt/how-to-adopt.

Not looking to adopt? The shelter is always looking for fosters to provide rabbits and other shelter pets with a temporary home. More information about fostering can be found at: thehumanesociety.org/getinvolved/foster.
